Step-Childe Harold

1610 20th St NW.,
Washington DC

The Iconic Childe Harold operated at this location from 1967 - 2007 and is part of the city's folklore. Founded by Bill Herd, supposedly because he had been barred from every other bar in DC, he was even thrown out of his own bar on occasion. It was a cornerstone of the DC scene with an impressive list of bands to have had gigs here including:-

Bruce Springsteen, Emmylou Harris, Bonnie Raitt, Al Green, John Denver, George Thorogood & the Destroyers and The Ramones to name a few .

In addition impromptu performances occurred with even The Who and The Rolling Stones taking to the stage.
